RUID or A number

We recently received your FAFSA application. Listed in either the parent or student sections of Additional Financial Information, there was a large dollar amount reported in "Taxable student grant and scholarship aid as reported to the IRS in your Adjusted Gross Income on your Federal tax return." You should only report a dollar amount in this question IF you were required to list the grants and scholarships on a federal tax return (in most cases, families are not required to report any grants and scholarships as taxable income on their tax returns).

What to do next:

Please select the following statement regarding the amounts listed on your FAFSA:

The amounts listed on the FAFSA regarding grants and scholarships listed on my or my parent's federal tax returns are correct and I/they did report grants and scholarships on the federal tax return.

Please send a signed 2015 IRS 1040, 1040A or 1040EZ Income Tax Return.

We did not report any grants and scholarships on my or my parent's federal tax return and we mistakenly reported this information on the FAFSA. (Financial Aid will correct the information on your FAFSA for you)

Signatures

We certify that all the information reported on this worksheet is complete and correct. We understand that incomplete or missing documents or forms can result in a delay of the aid process. If you purposely give false or misleading information you may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison, or both.
