

Your 2015–2016 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, Rutgers University will compare your FAFSA with the information on this Statement and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You (and your spouse, if married) must complete and sign this Statement, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to your regional Office of Financial Aid. NOTE: Rutgers University may ask for additional information. Promptly return this Statement so that your financial aid is not delayed.

A. Statement of Food Stamps Received
