

2017 Summer Aid Application

Complete, sign, and submit this form to apply for summer 2017 aid. In order to be considered for summer aid, undergraduate students must be registered for at least 6 credits. Most graduate/law students must be registered for at least 3 credits, however students enrolled in the Newark Business School must be registered for at least 6 credits.

Conditionally readmitted students do not qualify for summer aid. Students applying for summer aid will be held to the standards of the academic progress policy. Your summer aid is contingent upon meeting satisfactory academic progress, or the requirements of your academic plan, if applicable. Academic progress will be measured after spring grades are posted. If you fail to meet academic progress, or the requirements of your plan, your summer aid will be cancelled. For more information on academic progress, visit financialaid.rutgers.edu/sap.

The questions below will determine if you are eligible for summer aid:
